

C4/C 294

Telephone No 80

JOSIAH HENRY SYMON.
PERCIVAL RANDOLPH STOW.
LEONARD WILLIAM BAKEWELL.
ARTHUR WILLIAM PIPER.

Selborne Chambers, Pirie St.

Adelaide 12th Oct. 1897.

My dear Clark,

I feel very guilty in having omitted long before this to acknowledge your letter of Sept. 1st, forwarding me your notes upon the amendments to the Commonwealth Bill; for which I greatly thank you. I think it is the universal regret of the Convention that you were not there to advocate your own amendments. No one is equal to wearing your robe in that regard.

I send you with this a copy of the Hansard reprint of the speech I made on equal representation

The Honorable

A. Inglis Clark

Attorney General

Nobart.

in the Senate. It is a fairly accurate report and may interest you.

With kindest regards.

Very truly yours,

J. R. Symms

C4/C 294

Telephone No.80

Josiah Henry Symon
Percival Randolph Stow
Leonard William Bakewell
Arthur William Piper

Selbourne Chamber
Pirie Street
Adelaide
12th October 1897

My dear Clark,

I feel very guilty in having omitted long before this to acknowledge your letter of September 1st forwarding me your notes upon the amendments to the Commonwealth Bill; for which I greatly thank you. I think it is the universal regret of the Convention that you were not there to advocate your own amendments. No one is equal to wearing your robe in that regard.

I send you with this a copy of the Hansard reprint of the speech I made on equal representation in the Senate. It is a fairly accurate report and may interest you.

With Kindest regards
very truly yours

J.H. Symon

The Honorable
A. Inglis Clark
Attorney General
Hobart.